Time: 8:30AM-5:00 PM Friday & Saturday

It is once again my distinct honor and a privilege for me to be hosting this course for the 32nd year. So, make your plans to attend the Advanced Biomechanics XXXII Course. For participants of previous 'Biomechanics' courses this program will be a combination of clinical techniques with direct correlation of specific treatment problems through the use of case presentations.

As you know for the past few years I have ask the group to submit ideas for topics for the next year's course. This results in numerous request to answer specific questions regarding specific treatment problems and I have attempted to group these together in order of the most requested items. Additionally, I will be presenting more cases under the category of 'Why did/is this not working??' as well as cases entitled 'How could this be done better??' Additional information and updates will be provided on many previously discussed topics. So, this year's seminar will seek to address a variety of items (including answering many of the specific questions that were asked). See the list of 'Clinical Learning Objectives' below.

This will not be a repeat of last year's information.

Multiple cases will be utilized to demonstrate various aspects of mechanics and treatment modalities with particular interest paid to the best available 'evidenced based information'.

Additionally, multiple treatment ‘pearls’ will be shown to make your practice easier and more efficient.

Participants Case Consultations

Participant’s individual cases will be reviewed at 5:00PM on Friday and 5:00PM on Saturday after the course. Should you decide to bring the records on a case from your office, be sure that it has been completely analyzed and treatment planned prior to our discussions. In order to give you an opinion, it is necessary that you present complete and accurate records, and that you follow the "analytical and cephalometric guide-lines" previously set.
